SILVER STATE SCHOOLS CREDIT UNION APPOINTS LONG-TIME CHAMPION OF EDUCATION TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

LAS VEGAS - (September 7, 2017) - Silver State Schools Credit Union (SSSCU) Board of Directors has appointed Mary Beth Scow, Director, effective immediately. Mrs. Scow, a long-time SSSCU member and resident of Southern Nevada, will serve as a Board Director for three years for her initial term.

Mrs. Scow has dedicated her career to improving education and the community of Southern Nevada. She spent 12 years on the Clark County School Board, served as President of the Board, and received the CCSD Excellence in Education Hall of Fame Award. Most recently, Mrs. Scow served two terms on the Clark County Commission and as Chair of the Southern Nevada Water Authority.

“Mary Beth Scow brings a breadth of knowledge of the area and community in which SSSCU serves. I am confident that she will bring the same level of excellence, expertise and determination she exercised on the CCSD School Board and Clark County Commission to our Board of Directors”, remarked Teresa Yeoman, SSSCU Board Chairman.

The SSSCU Board of Directors is comprised of seven volunteer members. All Board Members have a tie to the local education community from a variety of facets. The chief focus of the SSSCU Board of Directors is to ensure the ongoing success of the credit union.
